Sr. No	Term	Definition
		xv. The Board may determine any other information, decisions, events or facts that are material.
3.	Security	An ownership position in listed securities of the Company and its group companies.
4.	Trading Day	A day on which the Dubai Financial Market (DFM) is open for trading (Sell & Buy).
5.	Trading	Sale and purchase transactions in Company securities
6.	Trading Window	Duration which commences from the opening of Market on the Trading Day following the date of public disclosure of the financial results for a particular fiscal quarter or year and continue until the commencement of the “black-out” period.

3 Black Out period

- “Black-Out” period is a particularly sensitive period of time for transactions in the Company's stock due to the fact that Insiders will, during that period, often possess Material Price Sensitive Information about the expected financial results for the quarter or year. All Insiders are prohibited from trading during such period. (Refer Appendix 1 for illustrated timelines with respect to Blackout period).
- In addition, from time to time, Material Price Sensitive Information regarding DI and its Subsidiary companies may be pending to be disseminated to the public. Accordingly, ten (10) working days prior to the announcement of any significant information which affects the share price by way of a rise or a fall, unless the information was a result of sudden adventitious events, shall also be considered as a “Black-Out” period during which the same prohibitions and recommendations shall apply.
- The prohibition against trading during the “Black-Out” period encompasses the fulfillment of "limit orders" by any broker for an Insider, as applicable, and the brokers with whom any such limit order is placed must be so instructed by them at the time it is placed.

4 Trading window

- The Trading Window shall commence from the opening of Market on the Trading Day following the date of public disclosure of the financial results for a particular fiscal quarter or year and continue until the commencement of the “Black-Out” period.
- Main Insiders and Other Insiders shall refrain from conducting transactions involving the purchase or sale of the Company's Securities other than during the Trading Window.
- Insiders are prohibited from trading in securities of the Company while they are in possession of Material Price Sensitive Information not yet disclosed to the public. (Refer Investor Relations Manual for policies with respect to disclosure of Material Price Sensitive Information). The Trading Window resumes at the beginning of the Trading Day following the date of public disclosure of the information, or at such time as the information is no longer material.
- Every Main/Other Insider has the individual responsibility to comply with this policy. An Insider shall forego a proposed transaction in the Company's Securities even if he or she planned to make the transaction before learning of the Material Price Sensitive Information and even though the Insider believes he or she may suffer an economic loss or forego anticipated profit by waiting.
- Furthermore, all Main/Other Insiders shall have individual responsibility of obtaining approvals from the Market in accordance with the provisions of Article (38) of The Authority's Board of Directors' Decision No. (3) of 2000 Concerning the Regulations as to Disclosure and Transparency prior to dealing in listed securities of DI and its group companies.

5 Trading on Material Price Sensitive Information

- Insiders may be subject to criminal and civil fines and penalties as well as imprisonment for engaging in transactions in the Company's Securities at a time when they have knowledge of Material Price Sensitive Information regarding DI.
- Additionally, no Insider shall disclose ("tip") Material Price Sensitive Information to any other person (including family members) where such information may be used by such person to his or her profit by trading in the Securities of companies to which such information relates, nor shall such Insider or related person make recommendations or express opinions on the basis of Material Price Sensitive Information as to trading in listed securities of DI and its group companies.
- Insiders may also be liable for improper transactions by any person to whom they have disclosed Material Price Sensitive Information regarding DI or to whom they have made recommendations or expressed opinions on the basis of such information as to trading in the Company's Securities.
- Penalties will be imposed irrespective of whether the person benefits from the trading or not. Specifically, as per SCA regulations (Decision No. (3) of 2000 Concerning the Regulations as to Disclosure and Transparency, Article No. 37), any person shall be liable to imprisonment for a period of not less than three months and not more than three years and a fine of not less than one hundred thousand (100,000) Dirhams and not more than one million (1,000,000) Dirhams, or either of these penalties, if he/she:
 - "Transacts on the basis of unpublicized or undisclosed information he/she acquired by virtue of his/her position.
 - Exploits unpublicized information which could affect the prices of Securities to achieve personal benefits."
- Insiders who violate this Policy shall also be subject to appropriate disciplinary action by the Insider Trading Supervision Committee (ITSC).

6 Periodic Declarations by Insiders

- All Main Insiders and employees included within the definition of Other Insiders shall be required to submit a declaration disclosing:
 - Their own holdings.
 - The holdings of their minor Relatives in listed securities of Dubai Investments PJSC and its group companies; and
 - A list of their Relatives' full names.

Declarations must be submitted:

- Initially, at the time of joining Dubai Investments PJSC; and
- Subsequently, from time to time (quarterly or more frequently), as may be required by the Securities and Commodities Authority (SCA) or the Dubai Financial Market (DFM).

Relatives are defined as father, mother, brother, sister, children, spouse, father-in-law, mother-in-law and stepchildren residing within the same household as the Insider (hereafter referred to as "Relatives") (Refer Appendix 2 for Employee Declarations)

- Declarations in respect of holdings of Directors of DI PJSC and that of their Relatives in listed securities of DI and its group companies shall be requested by the Board Secretary at the time of their joining the Board of DI PJSC, and annually at the beginning of the year. Thereafter, at every Board meeting, if there have been any trades resulting in changes in the Directors' holdings, or updates to list of Relatives - details thereof shall be provided by way of a written declaration. Notably, DI Shares department shall be responsible for sourcing the Relatives' holdings from DFM. Additionally, they will provide a confirmation acknowledging their position and responsibilities as insiders in relation to confidential information and adhering to SCA requirements on trading on insider information. (Refer Appendix 3 for Board Member Declarations)
- Directors shall additionally be required to confirm in their declarations that they have secured the necessary approvals from the Market's Board of Directors before executing any transactions in listed securities of DI and its group companies.

- Insiders are required to maintain supporting evidence / documentation of any purchase / sale which shall be produced upon request by the ITSC or Regulator/Market.
- With regards to Temporary Insiders, the relevant Head of Department shall ensure that the service contract and/or NDA includes contractual terms in respect of their status as Insiders and obligation of non-disclosure and obligation to adhere to the regulatory requirements applicable to Insiders.
